About Mark

At the young age of fifteen, Mark Vincent stepped onto the set of Australia's Got Talent and stunned a nation with his powerful and emotive rendition of Puccini's, Nessun Dorma. Mark's incredible voice, mature beyond its years, captured the hearts of people all over Australia and internationally. Mark Vincent would eventually propel himself from that very first performance, to become the winner of Australia's Got Talent 2009, Mark has since gone on to become one of Australia's most beloved tenors, having released nine #1 ARIA Classical Crossover Albums while having earned accolades both nationally and internationally. Mark Vincent made his Musical Theatre debut in the 2014 Australian production of Dirty Dancing, which played 130 performances around the country. In 2016, Dame Julie Andrews, DBE cast Mark in her directorial production of My Fair Lady, which toured nationally with Opera Australia to rave reviews. Vincent's 2017 album A Tribute to Mario Lanza contained the groundbreaking 'virtual duet' of 'Because You're Mine. The album went on to be the highest selling ARIA Classical Crossover album of 2017 and debuted at #3 on the Aria top 100 chart. In 2022, Mark released his latest album called "In the Eyes of A Child. A collection of songs inspired by his greatest accomplishment, that of being a husband and father. Mark has been featured as special guest of internationally known soprano, Katherine Jenkins, performing iconic venues together, including The Royal Albert Hall in London. He has performed in concert with multimillion selling recording artist, Susan Boyle. He has also toured and recorded with Australia's leading lady of the theatre, Marina Prior.
