NEXT PRESENTER

KENNETH BUXTON

WENTWORTH POINT ANTIQUES ROADSHOW

Forget the BBC! It's all happening here at Wentworth Point with our very own Antiques Roadshow.

Kenneth (Ken) Buxton is an antiques dealer who will appraise and value our antiques and collectibles. He will share his knowledge about what is trending now in the antiques world and give some advice on what will make the best investments for future generations. He is happy to answer questions.

We will have a special table set up for the item(s) you bring in. Ken would like to inspect them beforehand and hopefully learn more about them, so please include a slip of paper with your name and a brief history of the item, if you know it. Once Ken has had time to inspect our heirlooms, he will speak about each one, give it a value, and may offer to buy it if you'd like to sell.

This will be an interesting morning and, who knows, there might be something you bought at a car boot sale for $10 that's really worth thousands!

This is our final meeting for the year so please come along. It will be a fun, informative and possibly a profitable get-together. As usual, tea, coffee and biscuits will also always available.
